Statement by Rep. Anne Peterson Hutto

Today, former Representative Wallace Scarborough withdrew the appeal of his November 4th election loss that was pending before the South Carolina House of Representatives.

Representative Anne Peterson Hutto made the following statement:

"I am relieved that this process is finally over and that the decision of the voters of James Island and Folly Beach will stand. Now, I can concentrate on the job I was elected to do. I'd like to thank Wallace Scarborough for his many years of service and wish him well."
