File the complaint Eddy. I will also move that the caucus censure you for outwardly supporting an opponent in a contested Republican primary. FYI I have already spoken to majority leader Bannister about your activity.

Do not contact me again.

Chris,

The more I think about your outburst and reprehensible behavior Friday night, I have decided I can't just forget it. I have talked to a number of people who witnessed your behavior. I am requesting a very formal apology or I will file ethics violations against you. Fortunately I have the best witness I could have, being the Speaker even though I was disappointed in his lack of leadership. I have reviewed our ethics statute and have determined your actions have violated a number of them.

Also I understand you demonstrated very unruly behavior in the lounge Thursday night. This was towards a lady accompanied by her boyfriend. I would expect you to take this very seriously since now alcohol does not play into your behavior.

For your information I have also discussed this with Larry Hargett, he wasn't really surprised.
