Mr. Gregory Z. Alexander

Dear Mr. Alexander:

In response to our telephone discussion today, the 1995 charges brought against you in the Superior Court of Fayette County, Georgia, for violation of the Georgia Controlled Substance Act, were dropped in 1997.

The case was transferred from the Superior Court (96M-0160) to the State Court of Fayette County (Case No. 97SR-145). When the case arrived in the State Court, the Solicitor General and I discussed the matter, and the Solicitor General saw fit to dismiss the charges.

As I recall the facts of the case, you were a passenger in a car which was pulled over by law enforcement due to the driver's weaving. You were a passenger seated in the right front passenger's seat.

When the police searched the vehicle, they found a small amount of marijuana between the console and the drivers seat.

My further recollection is that there was no odor of marijuana in the car or any other indication that you had any awareness that the marijuana was in the car.

Because of these factors plus the fact that the driver was convicted of Possession of Marijuana, the Solicitor General agreed to dismiss the charges against you.

I hope this helps.

Sincerely,

PAUL S. LISTON
